If an objection to a claim is opposed, a written response must be filed and served on the objecting party at least 5 business days before the scheduled hearing. A response is deemed sufficient if it states that written documentation in support of the proof of claim has already been provided to the objecting party and that the documentation will be provided at any evidentiary hearing or trial on the matter.

If you do not file a written response with the Court, or if you do not serve your written response on the person who sent you this notice, then:

- The Court may refuse to allow you to speak at the scheduled hearing; and
- The Court may rule against you and sustain the objection without formally calling the matter at the hearing.
